Stalls:

1. Tattoo stall

One of the standout attractions at the HSNCU Alumni Meet was the Block Tattoo stall, which quickly became a favorite among the attendees. The stall featured talented artists who intricately designed beautiful, traditional block-print-inspired tattoo patterns on the hands of guests. The intricate designs, inspired by block prints, were a fusion of cultural heritage and contemporary flair, offering a unique and creative twist on the classic tattoo art. Alumni were seen eagerly waiting their turn to adorn their hands with these beautiful patterns, adding an extra layer of charm to the event. The stall not only added a touch of artistry and tradition to the meet but also became a lively spot for conversation and socializing among the alumni.

2. Games stall

A lively games stall was set up at the Alumni Meet, adding an element of fun and friendly competition to the event. The stall featured a variety of games that appealed to all ages, from simple yet engaging skill challenges to more interactive activities. Alumni eagerly participated, reliving their playful college days, while also connecting with each other in a lighthearted way. For those who showed their skills and won, exciting prizes were up for grabs, adding an extra thrill to the competition. The games not only kept the atmosphere lively but also brought out a sense of camaraderie and enthusiasm among the alumni, making it one of the highlights of the evening.

3. Photo Booth

A vibrant photo booth was set up at the event, complete with colorful sashes and fun, creative prompts, providing attendees with the perfect opportunity to capture memorable moments. The booth was designed to add a touch of playfulness and nostalgia to the evening, allowing alumni to take group photos or solo shots with quirky messages and props. The sashes, personalized with the university's logo and event theme, added a sense of unity and school spirit, while the prompts encouraged attendees to express their favorite memories or share thoughts about the event. It quickly became a popular spot, with alumni laughing and posing for pictures, ensuring that everyone left with a tangible reminder of this special reunion.

4. Henna Stall

A beautiful Henna stall was set up at the Alumni Meet, offering guests a chance to indulge in the timeless art of mehendi. Talented henna artists created intricate and elegant designs, ranging from traditional motifs to more modern patterns, catering to all tastes and styles. Alumni were seen eagerly lining up to get their hands adorned, with many enjoying the relaxing process and opportunity to reminisce about festive college days. The delicate fragrance of freshly applied henna added to the ambiance, making the stall a serene yet lively corner of the event. The Henna stall not only provided a touch of cultural charm but also gave attendees a lovely souvenir to take home, making it a memorable part of the evening.

Vice Chancellor's Address:

Col. Prof. (Dr.) Hemlata K. Bagla, Vice Chancellor, HSNCU delivered a heartfelt address, emphasizing the profound impact alumni have in shaping the university's legacy. She shared a powerful metaphor about launching a ship from the harbor—an analogy for the founding journey of HSNC University, Mumbai which has faced challenges like storms at sea, yet progressed with collective effort. Alumni were reminded that, like the universe and galaxies constantly moving forward, we never return to the exact same moment in time—emphasizing the importance of embracing progress and change. A reaffirmation of alumni contributions was called for, not only through reunions, but by touching lives and giving back through the happiness of service. She urged the former students to remain connected and committed, not just in spirit but through tangible actions like mentoring juniors and guiding them away from the same hurdles. Instead of merely seeking placements, alumni were encouraged to become job creators and entrepreneurs. New initiatives like the School of Technology and B.Tech programs in AI and Machine Learning were introduced, showcasing the university's continuous evolution. Alumni were also invited to be part of the Student Advisory Board and contribute to academic planning. Finally, a call for lifelong learning was emphasized—encouraging alumni to pursue upskilling through certificate programs and to stay actively engaged with the ever-evolving academic environment of HSNC University.

Number of Alumni Attendees:

Approximately 170 plus alumni attended the event, representing various batches and departments.
